Application for a New Zealand Citizen Family Relationship (subclass 461) visa

Form

The Department of Immigration and Border Protection (the department) acknowledges that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are the traditional custodians of the Australian land.

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete your application. Once you have completed your application we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

Life in Australia – Australian values

The Australian Government encourages people to gain an understanding of Australia, its people and their way of life, before applying for a visa to live in Australia. As part of this every person aged 18 years or over must declare that they will respect Australian values, as outlined below and obey the laws of Australia.

Australian values include respect for the freedom and dignity of the individual, freedom of religion, commitment to the rule of law, Parliamentary democracy, equality of men and women and a spirit of egalitarianism that embraces mutual respect, tolerance, fair play and compassion for those in need and pursuit of the public good.

Australian society also values equality of opportunity for individuals, regardless of their race, religion or ethnic background.

It is also important to understand that English is the national language.

Further information is contained in the Life in Australia booklet, however, you are not required to read the booklet. The booklet is available in a wide range of languages. If you would like a copy of the booklet it can be obtained from www.border.gov.au

About this visa

The New Zealand Citizen Family Relationship (subclass 461) visa allows a person, or persons who do not hold a New Zealand passport but are members of the family unit of a New Zealand citizen who holds, or will hold upon entry to Australia, a Special Category (subclass 444) visa (SCV) to travel to, enter, reside and work in Australia on a temporary basis.

This visa:

- is valid for 5 years;
- permits unlimited travel to and from Australia;
- does not require formal sponsorship or nomination; and
- · does not include any work or study restrictions; but
- may include either or both conditions 8303 and 8501.

Condition 8303 states you must not become involved in activities disruptive to, or violence threatening harm to, the Australian community or a group within the Australian community.

Condition 8501 states you must maintain adequate arrangements for health insurance while you are in Australia.

About this application

This form may be used by both primary and secondary applicants who are members of the family unit of a New Zealand citizen SCV holder who wish to apply for temporary residence in Australia. All members of the family unit of the New Zealand citizen SCV holder intending to travel with or join them in Australia, to reside with them should be included in this application.

A secondary applicant for this application is a member of the family unit of the primary applicant and may include a child under 18. It may also include a relative who is over the age of 18 and is dependent on the primary applicant. To meet the requirements of this visa, however, the secondary applicant must also be a member of the family unit of the New Zealand citizen SCV holder.

Your application for a New Zealand Citizen Family Relationship (subclass 461) visa is not valid if you currently hold a criminal justice entry visa, a domestic worker visa, or if you are a detainee who has not made an application within the prescribed time limits, or if you hold a visa subject to a condition that prevents the grant of a substantive visa while you remain in Australia.

Integrity of application

The department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programmes. In relation to this application, if you or a member of your family unit:

- provide, or have provided in a previous application, fraudulent documents or false or misleading information (knowingly or not); and/or
- fail to satisfy, or have failed to satisfy in a previous application, the Minister of your or their identity;

this visa application may be refused and you, and any members of your family unit, may become unable to be granted a visa for specified periods of time, as set out in migration legislation.

If documents are found to be fraudulent or information to be incorrect after the grant of a visa, the visa may subsequently be cancelled.

Visa Application Charge

Refer to Part K – Payment details of this form to calculate the correct charge and make payment.

Refer to www.border.gov.au/trav/visa/fees for a complete and current list of applicable fees and charges.

Fees and charges may be subject to change at any time and this may increase the cost of a visa application.

Generally, Visa Application Charges are reviewed on 1 July each year, and the exchange rates used to calculate the amount payable in a foreign country are updated on 1 January and 1 July each year.

If you do not pay the full Visa Application Charge amount, your visa application will not be valid.

Charges are generally not refundable, even if the application is withdrawn or refused.

Method of payment

In Australia

To make a payment, please pay by credit card, bank cheque or money order made payable to the Department of Immigration and Border Protection. Credit card is the preferred method of payment.

Outside Australia

Before making a payment outside Australia, please check with the Australian Government office where you intend to lodge your application as to what methods of payment and currencies they can accept and to whom the payment should be made payable.

Health insurance requirements

You may be required, as a condition of this visa, to maintain adequate private medical and hospital health insurance while in Australia. This insurance cover does not have to be held with an Australian insurer – arrangements made in your home country may be assessed as being acceptable. You need to ensure your health insurance cover will provide for medically necessary treatment for the entire period of your stay.

The above condition may not apply if you are covered by reciprocal health care arrangements with your home country. You will be advised by a case officer if you are required to arrange private health insurance.

How to apply

Step 1 - Complete this application

Please use a black or blue pen, and write neatly in English using BLOCK LETTERS.

If you need more space to answer questions or wish to provide additional relevant information, attach a signed and dated sheet giving the required details.

Any alterations made before you lodge the form must be initialled and dated.

You will need to supply 2 recent passport-sized photographs of each person included in your application.

Step 2 – Lodge your application

When lodging your visa application, please ensure you have:

- · completed ALL questions in this form; and
- · included the Visa Application Charge; and
- included any additional attachments (if required); and
- included the checklist.

For additional documentary requirements and the checklist refer to the department's website www.border.gov.au/trav/visa-1/461-/new-zealand-citizen-family-relationship-(temporary)-visa-(subclass-461)-document-checklist

In Australia

If you are in Australia when you lodge your application, to assist us in processing your application, we request that you send your application along with all accompanying documents by post to:

New Zealand Relationship Visa Centre GPO Box 9984 SYDNEY NSW 2001

Or courier to:

Level 3 26 Lee St SYDNEY NSW 2001

Outside Australia

If you are outside Australia when you lodge your application, refer to the department's website www.border.gov.au/about/contact/offices-locations for information about your nearest office.

What happens after you lodge the visa application?

In Australia

If you are in Australia when you lodge your application, this form also serves as an application for a bridging visa class A, C or E, depending on which one you may be eligible to apply for.

If you need to travel outside Australia before your application is decided, you should contact the processing office regarding a bridging visa that would enable you to return to Australia.

For information on bridging visas, refer to the information form 1024i Bridging visas available from the department's website www.border.gov.au/allforms/

Your bridging visa will usually have the same work conditions as your existing visa. If you are seeking to change the work conditions which will apply to your bridging visa before this application is decided, you should apply on form 1005 Application for a bridging visa available from the department's website www.border.gov.au/allforms/

This form should be sent to the New Zealand Family Relationship Centre.

In and outside Australia

Once a decision has been made on your application, you will be notified of that decision in writing.

If your application is refused, you will be given reasons for the refusal as well as information about review rights.

Residential address

You must provide the address of where you intend to live during the period that your application is being considered. Failure to give your residential address will result in this application being invalid. A post office box address will not be accepted as your residential address.

Let the department know if you change your address

If you change your residential address for more than 14 days while your application is being processed, you must tell the department your new address and how long you will be there. The department will send communication about your application to the latest address for correspondence you have provided.

Communication about your application can be sent to another person that you have authorised, but you will be taken to have received the communication that the department sends to that person. The department must be informed (in writing) of any address change for either you or your authorised person.

Passport information

Most visa applicants will be required to hold a valid passport before they can be granted a visa. It is strongly recommended that the passport be valid for at least 6 months.

If you change your passport after you have been granted the visa you must notify the nearest Australian mission or office of the department.

If you do not provide us with the details of any new or additional passports you use to travel to Australia, you may experience significant delays at the airport and may be denied permission to board your plane.

Do NOT send your passport with your visa application.

Provide with your visa application a certified copy of the page from your passport showing your photo and details. We will advise you if your application has been approved. Please keep a copy of the Visa Grant Notification in a safe place for your reference.

Important information about privacy

Your personal information is protected by law, including the Privacy Act 1988. Important information about the collection, use and disclosure (to other agencies and third parties, including overseas entities) of your personal information, including sensitive information, is contained in form 1442i Privacy notice. Form 1442i is available from the department's website www.border.gov.au/allforms/ or offices of the department. You should ensure that you read and understand form 1442i before completing this form.

Form 1163i Health requirement for temporary entry to Australia provides additional information on Australia's visa health requirements. Form 1163i is available at offices of the department or from the department's website www.border.gov.au/allforms/

When sponsorship is required for your visa subclass, the outcome of your application may be made known to the person/organisation who has submitted a sponsorship form regarding your application.

Immigration assistance

A person gives immigration assistance to you if he or she uses, or claims to use, his or her knowledge or experience in migration procedure to assist you with your visa application, request for ministerial intervention, cancellation review application, sponsorship or nomination.

In Australia a person may only lawfully give immigration assistance if he or she is a registered migration agent or is exempt from being registered. Only registered migration agents may receive a fee or reward for providing immigration assistance.

If an unregistered person in Australia, who is not exempt from registration, gives you immigration assistance they are committing a criminal offence and may be prosecuted.

Migration agents in Australia

Migration agents in Australia must be registered with the Office of the Migration Agents Registration Authority (Office of the MARA) unless they are exempt from registration.

Migration agents outside Australia

Migration agents who operate outside Australia do not have to be registered. The department may give some overseas agents an ID number. This number does not mean that they are registered.

Note: Some Australian registered migration agents operate overseas.

Migration agent information

A migration agent is someone who can:

- advise you on the visa that may best suit you;
- tell you the documents you need to submit with your application;
- help you fill in the application and submit it; and
- communicate with the department on your behalf.

If you appoint a migration agent, the department will assume that your migration agent will be your authorised recipient, unless you indicate otherwise.

Your migration agent will be the person with whom the department will discuss your application and from whom it will seek further information when required.

You are not required to use a migration agent. However, if you use a migration agent, the department encourages you to use a registered migration agent. Registered agents are bound by the Migration Agents Code of Conduct, which requires them to act professionally in their clients' lawful best interests.

Information on migration agents, including a list of registered migration agents, is available on the Office of the MARA website www.mara.gov.au

You can also access information about migration agents on the department's website www.border.gov.au

Exempt persons

The following people do not have to be a registered migration agent in order to provide immigration assistance, but they must not charge a fee for their service:

- a close family member (spouse, de facto partner, child, parent, brother or sister);
- a member of parliament or their staff;
- an official whose duties include providing immigration assistance (eg. a Legal Aid provider);
- a member of a diplomatic mission, consular post or international organisation.

Appointing a migration agent/exempt person

To appoint a migration agent/exempt person you should complete Part J – Options for receiving written communications.

Your migration agent/exempt person should complete form 956 Advice by a migration agent/exempt person of providing immigration assistance.

Form 956 is available from the department's website www.border.gov.au/allforms/

Options for receiving written communications

If you do not appoint a migration agent/exempt person you may still authorise another person, in writing, to receive written communications on your behalf. This person is called the authorised recipient.

Authorised recipient information

All written communication about your application will be sent to your authorised recipient, unless you indicate that you wish to have health and/or character information sent directly to you.

The department will communicate with the most recently appointed authorised recipient as you may only appoint one authorised recipient at any time for a particular application.

You will be taken to have received any documents sent to that person as if they had been sent to you.

To appoint an authorised recipient you should complete:

- Part J Options for receiving written communications; and
- form 956A Appointment or withdrawal of an authorised recipient.

Note: Migration agents/exempt persons do not need to complete form 956A.

Form 956A is available from the department's website www.border.gov.au/allforms/

Consent to communicate electronically

The department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or email will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application the department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with.

If you agree to the department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the department over the internet or by other electronic means.

If you authorise another person to receive documents on your behalf and they wish to be contacted electronically, their signature is required on form 956 or 956A to indicate their consent to this form of communication.

Note: Electronic communication is the fastest means of communication available and the department prefers to communicate electronically because this results in faster processing.

42 BIOMETRICS DECLARATION AND CONSENT

This declaration and consent must be signed by the main applicant and each accompanying person aged 16 years or over.

If I am requested or required to provide my fingerprints and facial image: I consent to:

- the collection of my fingerprints and facial image; and
- if applicable, the collection of the fingerprints and facial image of each accompanying person under 16 years of age.

I declare that:

 I understand that my fingerprints and facial image and my biographical information (and those of each accompanying person under 16 years of age) held by the department may be given to Australian law enforcement agencies to help identify me and each accompanying person, to help determine my eligibility and the eligibility of each accompanying person for grant of the visa applied for, and for law enforcement purposes.

I consent to:

- Australian law enforcement agencies disclosing my biometric, biographical and criminal record information (and that of each accompanying person under 16 years of age) to the department for any of the purposes outlined above; and
- the department using the information obtained for the purposes of the Migration Act 1958 or the Australian Citizenship Act 2007.

43 DECLARATION

WARNING: Giving false or misleading information or documents is a serious offence.

This declaration and consent must be signed by the main applicant and each accompanying person over 18.

I declare that:

- the information that has been provided on this form, and on any attachments to it, is complete, correct and up-to-date.
- I acknowledge that I have read the notes at the front of this application.
 I am aware of the conditions that may apply and that I am required to abide by them.
- any registration or licensing that is required before I can begin employment in Australia will be my responsibility.
- I am aware that I must advise the department immediately I am aware of a change in circumstances relating to any information I have provided in or with this application.
- I understand that if condition 8501 is imposed on my visa, it will be indicated on the visa label or in documents given to me by the department about the grant of my visa by the condition code '8501'.
- I understand that if my visa is granted it may be subject to condition 8501.
- I will respect Australian values as listed on this form, during my stay in Australia and will obey the laws of Australia.
- I have read the information contained in form 1442i Privacy notice.
- I understand the department may collect, use and disclose my personal information (including biometric information and other sensitive information) as outlined in form 1442i Privacy notice.
- I understand that if any fraudulent documents or false or misleading information has been provided with this application, or if I fail to satisfy the Minister of my identity, my application may be refused and I, and any other member of my family unit, may become unable to be granted a visa for specified periods of time.
- if documents are found to be fraudulent or information to be incorrect after the grant of a visa, the visa may subsequently be cancelled.
